Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. R. Cagle, of Wasita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates Liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by W. A. D'Alemberte, Druggist, Guaranteed.

BATTLE AT DORDRECHT.

DORDRECHT, March 5.—Following yesterday's success General Brabant again engaged the Boers today with advantage, holding the position captured yesterday. There was some smart fighting this morning, the British losing five or six men and capturing two Boer fort, thus vastly improving their position. The Boers fought tenaciously, contesting every inch of the ground, but ultimately they retreated, carrying off their guns and wagons. A mounted force pursued them, but the result is not yet known. The British casualties during the two days were 30 wounded, 12 or 13 killed. The Boer losses are unknown. Throughout the actions fighting the colonials behaved splendidly.

Natal's Capture of the Boers.

LONDON, March 6.—The war office received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts, dated Ostfestein, March 5: "General Gaucare occupied Stormberg yesterday. The lines of railway north and west will now be repaired. General Clements is at Joubert's siding, a station beyond Colsterberg. General Baumer reports Natal now practically clear of the enemy and that he cannot bear of any formed body of the enemy anywhere. The Boers left some ambulances full of their sick from which the mules had been taken for transport service."

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) druggist called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to our neighbors and friends until it is a constant demand for it from all parts of the country. For sale by Hannah Bros., 21 South Palafox street.

Crushed Beneath Engine.

ATLANTA, March 6—Last night John Knowles, a fireman on the Central railroad, was run over by a switch engine under the Mitchell street viaduct and both of his legs were so badly crushed that amputation was necessary. He was riding on a freight train, and when attempting to get off the train he stepped in front of the switch engine. His home is at Griffin. He is a young man and has been a trusted employee of the Central road for several years.
